

Privacy Policy

I am dedicated to providing top-quality service. Protecting your privacy is paramount and I have implemented procedures to safeguard your information included in your files. I have installed a firewall on my computer; computerized files can only be accessed with a password; and all paperwork is kept in a locked filing cabinet. I am in complete compliance of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) that was initiated to protect your private health information.

This notice describes how Protected Health Information (PHI) about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Personal and Protected Health Information (PHI)

I may gather personal and health information from you, other health care providers and third-party payers. This information is used for treatment, payment and health care operations. The following describes the ways I may use and disclose your Protected Health Information:

- I may provide PHI about you to health care providers, other practice personnel, or third parties who are involved in the provision, management or coordination of your treatment care.
- I may disclose your PHI to any third party you designate in writing.
- I may use or disclose your PHI so that we can collect or make payment for the health care services you received or are going to receive.
- I may disclose your PHI if I ever sell or transfer my practice.
- I may disclose your PHI if we believe it is necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public.
- I may disclose your PHI to a government agency if we believe you have been a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. I will make this disclosure if it is necessary to prevent serious harm to you or other potential victims, you are unable to agree due to your incapacity, you agree to the disclosure, or required by law.
- I may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law.
- I may disclose your PHI as required by a court or administrative order, or under certain circumstances in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other legal process.
- I may release your PHI as necessary to comply with laws relating to Workers' Compensation or similar programs that are established by the law to provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness without regard to fault.
- I may disclose your PHI to a HIPAA certified Business Associate (a person or organization that performs a function or activity on behalf of my practice that involves the use or disclosure of PHI, such as a billing services company or another practitioner who is involved in your health care).
- Your PHI may be disclosed for military and veteran's affairs, for national security and intelligence activities, or for correctional activities.
- I may use or disclose your PHI when required by law.
- I may use your name, address, phone number, e-mail, and your records to contact you with appointment reminder calls, promotion postcards, greeting cards, information about alternative therapies, quarterly health newsletters or other related information that may be of interest to you. If you are not at home to receive an appointment reminder, a message will be left on your voicemail.
